

IN SENATE
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

MARCH 9, 1818.

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the petition of William Gamble,

REPORT:

The petitioner appears to have acted as inspector of the customs at the port of Lewistown in the district of Niagara, from the 15th of February, 1806, until the 24th of January, 1808, for the performance of which service, he presented an account at the proper office, of 1,212 dollars, and was allowed the sum of $ 242 67, this allowance being estimated at the rate which his immediate successor was compensated. A copy of a letter from the comptroller, dated the 20th of April, 1816, is herewith reported, from a consideration of which, with other documents furnished from that department, the committee are of opinion that no legislative interference is necessary. They, therefore, submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the petitioner have leave to withdraw his petition.
